Dear Parent/Guardian,

Progress Theatre: Romeo and Juliet By William Shakespeare
Year 10 & 11 English Students

As part of their curriculum in English Literature for Year 11 and Year 10 students, I would like to offer your son/daughter the chance to attend Romeo and Juliet at the Progress Theatre on Thursday 12th December.

The young actors of Progress Youth Theatre bring their unique take on William Shakespeare's tragedy of star-crossed lovers, Romeo and Juliet.

"Two households, both alike in dignity
In fair Verona, where we lay our scene
From ancient grudge break to new mutiny
Where civil blood makes civil hands unclean.
From forth the fatal loins of these two foes
A pair of star-cross'd lovers take their life
Whose misadventured piteous overthrows
Do with their death bury their parents' strife."

The feud between the noble houses of Capulet and Montague is deep and bitter. So when the son of one house falls in love with the daughter of the other, what can come of it?

Further information can be found here:

The cost of the ticket is £10 per student. There will be refreshments available at the interval so they may wish to bring a small amount of cash. We will leave from Oakview on foot at 19:00 and return to school by 22:30. Students are expected to be in school as normal the following day.

If you wish me to book tickets for your son/daughter then please complete the electronic reply by Monday 18th November. The Progress Theatre is a very small venue so tickets will be allocated on a first come, first served basis.

Kind regards,

Thomas Rawlings
Head of English

Eddie Falshaw
Deputy Head
