

TV Production Workshops at Ravensbourne University London

Throughout the Easter and Summer periods, Ravensbourne are offering students (16-18 years old) a series of two-day workshops, which will take place in their industry leading TV studio in North Greenwich.

During the two-day workshop's students will:

- Have the opportunity to be trained in all live TV broadcasting areas including; Directing, Vision Mixing, Lighting, Sound, Camera Operating and even Presenting
- Work with a fully trained industry practitioner, alongside other students from the BA (Hons) Digital Television Production course
- Meet with alumni from Ravensbourne who are now working in the TV industry
- Produce a 15-20 minute live TV show which can be used for showreel purposes

This course is ideal for those considering a further education course in the media/television industry or are looking to head straight into work in this field.

There will be a cost involved for students wishing to take part, but at this stage Ravensbourne University London ask you to email shortcourses@rave.ac.uk to express your interest before they release full costings.
