

LEIGHTON PARK
FOUNDED 1890

Così fan Tutti - an Introduction to Opera

Ferrando and Guglielmo are convinced that their girlfriends Dorabella and Fiordiligi would never be unfaithful. Their friend Don Alfonso doubts this and persuades the men to try an experiment. Are the girls as loyal as the men thought? Are any of them the people they thought they were? Confusion mounts as disguises and tricks abound...

Jonathan Miller's production brings out the timelessness of this exploration of the human condition, as the classic story of love under the microscope is given a contemporary perspective.

The wonderful pairing of a comic narrative, characters and Mozart's ear for translating the cadences of speech into his wonderful music makes this one of the most accessible operas available. Many people cite it as the first opera they enjoyed. We hope you have a wonderful time with it too!"

Available 7pm 10th April <https://www.youtube.com/royaloperahouse>