A Fire Burns in a Wood by Catherine

A fire burns in a wood.
One spark may have started it
But one spark can burn a forest down
If given the fuel to burn

No fire comes from nothing
Vulcan's rage is slow to build
But from a spark
Builds a wildfire

When the ashes settle
And choking we emerge from the smoke
Only then can we rise
Stronger, united.
